

Rob Carr constructed the CBD Sewer Augmentation Stage 2 project on Lonsdale Street for Greater Western Water in Melbourne's CBD. Project consisted of two microtunnels, one 350m long and the other 550m long. Both microtunnels were launched from a 23m deep underpinned caisson shaft 23m deep.